

Welcome Everyone to Astrology for Deliberate Creators!

This week's topic is 'EXPECTATIONS' and how to recognize them through your astrology AND bring them into alignment with what you want.

Our expectations play a powerful role in what unfolds in our lives, which is why it serves us so well to consciously align our expectations to our desires. If we hold contrary thoughts and beliefs about what we want (including our ability to achieve those desires), we can sabotage our success indefinitely.

Magic happens, though, once our highest success becomes something we begin to see as normal and expected!

How to check in with your expectations? Look at what you are attracting! You can also check in with your natal (birth) chart or horoscope and note what you naturally expect in every area of life. Once you know your default, you can amp the energy to its POWER EXPRESSION, bringing you into your greatest alignment.

Here are the basics of how to create your chart online, and post it to the gallery and forum. Let us know if you need support here.

How to find your Ascendant, or any HOUSE in your chart.

Recap on Astrology and the Law of Attraction:

- 1) Everything is energy.
- 2) Energy vibrates at a certain frequency.
- 3) Your focus (or what energy you're "being") determines your vibration.
- 4) The vibration of 'I can't have that' attracts the same. (You can't have it.)
- 5) If we want a different experience, we must change our focus/thoughts.
- 6) New thoughts create a new vibration which equals a new experience.
- 7) Astrological, religion, cultural or philosophical support is optional.

There are 12 signs in the Zodiac and each one represents a vibrational MO, a natural way of being UNIQUE to you.

The signs tell us HOW an energy operates.

In your chart, each sign is represented by a glyph. You can learn the glyphs, but if you don't know them yet, no worries. On your Astro.com chart, the glyphs of each sign are named for your quick reference.

There are 12 Houses, or environments in the horoscope. Twelve pieces of pie. They show us WHERE the energy is operating, and what vibration (sign) we can activated to 'wake up' that house.

Vibration is vital. It tells the universe what to line you up with.

The power of the vibrations of confidence, commitment and belief . . . can turn dark horses into champions, long shots into heroes and underdogs into top dogs.

What is your vibration? (what signs in your horoscope are you tapped in to? Are you using your Power Expression, or default?)

It might be your sun sign, your Ascendant or Moon sign, or others, or a combo, but the signs you call 'your own,' consciously or unconsciously, are a snap shot of the vibrational instructions you are sending the universe.

Over the next 5 weeks, we are going to learn to manage our vibration by leveraging our personal astrology in various LOA MASTER tools.

Your chart becomes a kind of focus wheel, a visual, metaphorical model of vibrational alignment.

Remember: The signs are like the costumes the actors wear. In many ways, they define our actions.

Consider how each sign initiates action.

Aries — Pounce! Usually little or no warning.

Taurus — Surprisingly sensual, though ardent. They selectively fail to hear the word 'no.'

Gemini — Much talk before action. They seduce with words—sometimes quite eloquently.

Cancer — They retreat, you follow. Not opposed to emotional manipulation and/or allure.

Leo — Beware of public places, unless you like such things! Boldness, flash and glam!

Virgo — Seduces with atmosphere, candles, music, tantric manuals. Everything just so.

Libra — Wine, dine, listen and engage until there is nothing left between you but the erotic.

Scorpio — Seduces with their eyes. Always, the eyes! Thirty seconds or less and you're a goner.

Sagittarius — They promise the world, and usually deliver, metaphorically at least.

Capricorn — They buy you things. Excellent taste. Always first cabin.

Aquarius — They use the element of surprise—often surprisingly well. Much dialog.

Pisces — Enchantment. Their very being is an aphrodisiac. Poetry optional.

Tips for setting intentions and getting your Power Expression onboard

- 1) Start your day with appreciation
- 2) Set intentions to experience life and yourself without judgments
- 3) Use positive self-talk when starting something new
- 4) Focus on what's going right
- 5) Remember you have instant access to infinite possibilities

This Week's Homework:

- 1) identify your Ascendant and signs in the first house - what are your most powerful expectations there?
- 2) Identify your Descendant, the opposite sign of the 7th house - what are your most powerful expectations there?
- 3) Extra Credit: Note the Decan and Dwad of your Ascendant and Descendant degree. What does that add to your expectation and experiences. Now look at planets in aspect to the Asc and Dsc. Create an aspectarian just for these two points. What can you see is adding to your expectations and experiences now?

Remember, bring your questions, comments and insights to the GVA Forum!

See you there!

Love and Light,

Jeannette & Kim
